Annual E-Governance Report Academic Year 2021-2022

E-Governance Report for IIMHRD(W), PUNE

Introduction

IIMHRD(W) Pune is committed to fostering a transparent, efficient, and accessible learning environment through e-governance practices. This report highlights IIMHRD(W) e-governance initiatives undertaken during the period 2021-2024.

E-Governance Initiatives

IIMHRD(W) has implemented various e-governance initiatives to enhance student services, faculty operations, and administrative efficiency. These initiatives include:

Admissions:

IIMHRD(W) offers a streamlined online application process, allowing prospective students to submit applications, upload documents, pay fees, and track their application status electronically.

Student Management System (SMS): Students can manage various aspects of their academic life through the SMS. This includes online registration, course selection, grade viewing, attendance tracking, fee receipts download, and communication with faculty.

Learning Management System (LMS): SIIMS leverages an LMS to provide online courses, learning materials, discussion forums, and collaboration tools for faculty and students.

Examination Management System (EMS): The online EMS facilitates exam registration, hall ticket download, result publication, and a grievance redressal mechanism for students.

Financial Management System (FMS): Students can utilize the FMS for online fee payment, scholarship application and tracking, expense management for student organizations, and budget tracking for departments.

Library Management System (LMS): The online library system provides access to an extensive catalog of resources, including e-books, journals, and databases. Students can also search for and reserve physical library materials.

Grievance Redressal System (GRS): Students and staff can submit complaints and track their resolution progress electronically through the GRS.

Administrative Services: Various online applications are available for requesting certificates, managing leave for staff, and streamlining departmental workflows.

The implementation of these initiatives involved collaboration between the IT department, faculty, staff, and external vendors. Initial challenges included ensuring system integration, user training, and addressing concerns about internet connectivity. IIMHRD(W) addressed these challenges through phased rollouts, comprehensive training programs, and collaboration with technical support teams.

Outcomes and Impact

The e-governance initiatives have significantly improved efficiency and transparency at IIMHRD(W). Here are some notable outcomes:

- Increased online application submissions for admissions.
- Reduced turnaround time for student services like fee receipts and certificate issuance.
- Improved communication and collaboration between faculty and students through the LMS.
- Enhanced accessibility of learning resources through the online library system.
- Increased student and staff satisfaction with grievance redressal procedures.
- Future Plans

IIMHRD(W) remains committed to continuous improvement in e-governance practices. Here's a glimpse into future plans:

- Integration of mobile applications for accessing various student services.
- Expansion of online course offerings and development of interactive learning modules.
- Implementation of artificial intelligence-powered chatbots for student support.
- Upgrading cybersecurity measures to ensure data protection.

E-Governance Policy and Annual E Governance Report

IIMHRD governance has adopted E-governance in all areas of operations like planning and development, accounts, administration, communication, admissions, feedback, library, teaching-learning. IIMHRD has made financial provisions for its Upgradation and maintenance. There are certain standard operating procedures and policies in practice to successfully implement E-governance in all areas of operations.

Objective:

- Implementation of E-governance in various operations of the institution
- To achieve transparency, accountability and work efficiency in functioning of the IIMHRD.
- Providing easy access to information and facilitating online communication between various sections of institution.
- Making information visible to stakeholders.
- Make all operations user friendly to avoid barriers.

Policy Document:

To implement e-governance in all possible fields of operations such as planning and development, accounts, administration, communications, admissions, feedback, library, teaching learning, student management etc.

Following efforts are taken so far in implementation of e-governance

1. Website:

IIMHRD is affiliated to Savitribai Phule Pune University. IIMHRG BOG is the apex decision making authority in the matters of planning and development. Major plans regarding IIMHRD administrations, financial dealings, decisions incorporated through annual and general meetings are conveyed by management. The IIMHRD website www.iimhrd.edu.in works as information centre. There is a functional website committee in the IIMHRD. It looks after regular operations, Upgradation and smooth functioning of IIMHRD website.

2. Admission:

IIMHRD is offering management post-graduation degree program approved by AICTE. Admissions are done through DTE. DTE website of Maharashtra Government dte.maharashtra.gov.in instructions are followed. Merit list and admitted list are displayed by this website. IIMHRD is affiliated to Pune university and so for final admission and enrolment eligibility of admitted students are verified by sending documents through BCUD login of IIMHRD to Pune University.

3. Examination

Institute has purchased ERP vmEduLife

<https://portal.vmedulife.com/public/auth/#/login/sbes-iimhrd-pune>

Teachers conduct unit test, online examinations through this ERP. Using ERP teachers set rubrics and Question papers. Concurrent evaluations are evaluated by teachers through their ERP login credentials. Final Internal marks are submitted to University through Institute login portal of University.

4. Teaching Learning

Session plan, Notes, Timetable all are implemented through ERP.

5. Library

Library module is fully implemented through ERP. IIMHRD library is fully automated. All operations of library such as book issuance, return, cataloguing, foot fall counting is done through ERP & OPAC. Library has also subscribed to E-Resources such as N-List, E-Shodhsindhu, Shodhganga, Inflibnet.

6. Feedback

Student feedback are collected through ERP. Feedback is collected regularly and analysed. Analysis report is generated immediately through ERP.

7. Finance & Accounts

Accounts section of the IIMHRD uses Tally software. All account related entries are maintained in Excel software.

ICT infrastructure of the IIMHRD:

IIMHRD frequently updates its IT infrastructure regularly. Dedicated fund is kept for the ICT upgradation. Amount is finalized after discussion in Council meetings. IIMHRD has policy to provide every necessary IT infrastructure to all departments in the IIMHRD. The IT infrastructure of the IIMHRD is regularly maintained by the dedicated system administrator appointed by the SBES society. ICT infrastructure incorporates computers, Class room projectors, Smart board, Printers, Scanners.
